

1. Tuberculosis deaths spike in Mizoram

- Mizoram has reported 145 deaths due to tuberculosis (TB) in the 2025-26 period — the highest in 6 years, highlighting ongoing challenges in TB elimination despite national programs. Efforts to make India TB-free are being intensified.

2. NEET-PG counselling update

- The Madhya Pradesh Directorate of Medical Education (DME) announced the postponement of the mop-up round of NEET-PG medical counselling. A revised schedule is expected soon, affecting aspirants waiting for postgraduate seats.

3. Former Vice-President Jagdeep Dhankhar hospitalized

- Ex-Vice President Jagdeep Dhankhar was admitted to AIIMS Delhi after experiencing two fainting episodes. He is scheduled for further diagnostic evaluation, including an MRI scan; authorities are monitoring his condition.

Additional Health Context

- India's COVID-19 status: As of early January, India reported daily new COVID cases in the low hundreds, with active cases gradually declining. The Union Health Ministry continues booster vaccination efforts, especially for Covaxin doses nearing expiry.
- Siddha Day observed (Jan 6): This day celebrates Siddha — one of India's ancient traditional medical systems — highlighting holistic health and integrative healthcare under AYUSH.
- Back pain emerging as health concern: Health experts in the Delhi-NCR region warn that chronic back pain is rising rapidly, driven by sedentary lifestyles, stress, and obesity, now seen as a significant public health issue.